Subject: website updates at Dan Weinrich Minerals

- * I have just added a strange but nice mix of 27 new specimens to the site. This update includes many fine crystallized golds, gem crystals, and rare species. Prices range from $6 - $6000
- * Do not forget the auction that closes Tuesday night
- * There are currently 755 searchable specimens, in all price ranges, on the website. You can search by any number of parameters, including price and size ranges
- * See us in Dallas, Texas next weekend!
