Dear David ,

I would like to let you know about some changes of our website, jewelry and gifts shop is now located on main homepage. New shop is using own database, please calculate, you won't be able to login with informations from our main mineral shop, if you wish to purchase, you need to provide new registration. Prices are described in Euro, but upon request, we can send invoices in USD or other currency, in paypal checkout you may change your currency as you need. Described 19% tax will apply only to buyers from EU community, buyers outside EU community pay no tax and tax is deducted in final checkout. Upon request, you may combine items from both shops in one parcel to save on shipping fee, but payment must be separated for each shop as we are two business subjects. Enjoy visit ! Best regards David K.
