Subject: website updates at Dan Weinrich Minerals

We have returned from both our vacation and the Springfield Show. It was a great show this year - we enjoyed meeting many of you there!

We will now begin updating on a regular basis again; we have a lot of new material to offer and hope to update 3 - 4 times per week. New items to the website today include the following:

- * 19 mixed specimens, mostly miniatures.
- * 58 new specimens for auction

We will continue to update and will keep you updated.
