Message to store customers and registered mailing list members

Update number: #79 / 2007
Date: 6.11.2007

Dear David ,

we have arranged special sale offer of nearly 100 current specimens, this is limited time offer, hope you enjoy it. I would like to announce in advance, that during about 20-th November and 15-th December our shop may be temporary closed, we will be most of the time away and not able to take care about orders and emails as usualy. Please calculate with it and if you plan to purchase something for example as presents, we recommend to do it asap. Best regards David

Due to mail configuration problem today newsletter could be sent more than once, we apologize for it.

PS:1) I made recently some new improvements of our main shop, new testimonials are available now, only registered & logged customers may post feedback. We will be happy if you use it as our feedback board. Thank you.
2) All purchased or on hold items are now automatically hidden right after order is sent, if you need to check items you ordered, please go to your store account, under Orders History you can view all orders with items.

If there are no actual valid vouchers, you can always use as registered customer coupon SUBSCRIBED which give you basic 5% off.
