Subject: * The NEW Best Offer Mineral Auction is Now Open *

The Newest Best Offer Mineral Auction is online & ready for bids! This will be the most exciting auction to date because it will feature a large assortment of our highest quality specimens straight from the Exceptional Mineral Rooms at huge discounts!

30 specimens in all, with almost all coming from the Exceptional Rooms

Since these are very high quality specimens, there will be a reserve price set for each auction item. Please feel free to make an offer below the reserve price but it must be accepted before it will be placed into the auction. If a bid is deemed to be too low, a reasonable counteroffer will be e-mailed for your consideration. All bids that are placed at or above the reserve price level will be automatically entered into the auction. This auction closes on March 31st.
