Subject: * The Best Offer Mineral Auction's Final Bidding Weekend *

This edition of the Best Offer Auction has just a few more days left after the final bidding weekend. I browsed the auction today and noticed that activity is beginning to pick up a bit but there are still many fine specimens that need opening bids. The opening bid levels are ridiculously low and I adjusted many of them this afternoon to drop the prices even lower! I hope this will add even more excitement as we count down the final days before the auction closes.

If you haven't visited the auction yet, now is a great time to check it out and place a bid or two! Don't miss out on the low bid levels because they will only go higher from here.

The next auction update will be the final notice before the close....
