Hello David,

Our 2009-2010 meeting season finishes on high notes next week, beginning with the North American and International Explorationists Joint Meeting on Monday. Come here AAPG Distinguished Lecturer, Chip Feazel, talk about the improbable production resurgence of Ekofisk Field. The season concludes with the General Lunch on Wednesday, May 26, with a presentation on tight gas reservoirs in the Anadarko Basin. Log on today to take advantage of your final two networking opportunities before people start disappearing on vacation.

HGS Joint N. American and Int'l Dinner: North Sea Chalk - Ekofisk Field (AAPG Distinguished Lecture)
