Mineral Auction by Request!

I'm busy building the next mineral auction and I want to try something new this time! If you have a specimen or specimens that you've been watching for a while and would like to see in the auction, please e-mail and let me know.

The next auction will open early next week and an auction built by request sounds like a really good idea. Please e-mail which specimen you'd like to have in the auction and I'll place it for you if I'm able to. This will be the only custom made mineral auction on the internet and should be a lot of fun!
