Hi All,

Auction 536 will close later at 23:00Hrs today.

There are 80 items in the auction today - lots of good ones

There are 2 auctions just started that will run through until next week.

I am just about to shut up shop and leave for Munich; and there are more auctions to close and start during the show.

I cannot guarantee Update Emails so please check our Homepage for our latest starts and finishes.

Emails will be answered whilst I am away.

There will be a lot of e-Rocks people at Munich - I hope to meet as many as possible there.

If you want to find me you can leave a message at Christian Rewitzer's stand A6.551.

Cheers
