Subject: New Excalibur Mineral List #21101 Ready!
Attachments: 21101a.pdf

Happy New Year, Everyone!

Starting the year off right, the attached PDF shows our first list for the New Year, filled with our usual assortment of rarities, odd locality pieces and a number of old classics for your collecting pleasure. All specimens are offered on a first-come, first-served basis and are subject to prior sale, so get your orders in quickly!

For those in our local area, the New York City Gem & Mineral show will be March 5 & 6, 2011, at the Holiday Inn-Midtown, 440 W. 57 St., NYC. See our website for details, and we hope to see you there!
