The Tucson-Houston Shows Mineral Auction

This auction is now at the halfway point with only one week to go and bids are needed on many items! I've also replaced an item which sold outside of the auction and a beautiful Amethyst on Epidote took its place in the offering. All bids and offers are welcome and I encourage everyone to take part. Many are away or just returning from vacation so the great bargains are everywhere here in the final week of bidding!

This Auction will close on August 13th (Monday) at 8 PM central time!

Good luck and thanks for taking part!
