The Tucson Auction Closes Tomorrow!

The newest version of the Tucson Show Mineral Auction will be closing tomorrow night (Tuesday) May 7th at 9 PM central. Now is always a great time for participants to check their current bids, make additional bids, or place new bids for the first time. Lots of fine auction specimens are still in need of offers and many others are near their minimum reserve. I hope everyone has a chance to win a beautiful specimen in the current auction.

It's hard to believe, but these fine specimens still need opening bids!....

Incredibly rich specimen of Native Leaf Gold on Quartz from Romania
Gummy green Sphalerite crystals from Bulgaria
Super rare and historical Gold from the ghost town of Rhyolite, Nevada
Another super rare specimen of Silver crystals on Embolite from Australia
Historical Rhodochrosite from Butte, Montana
Golden Fluorite cluster with Calcite from Illinois
Scarce specimen of BLUE Fluorite from Illinois
Fantastic cabinet plate of Golden Calcite crystals from Illinois
New find of purple Fluorite on Quartz ps Calcite from Tombstone, Arizona
Fine specimen of Fluorite and Chalcopyrite from Romania

Gemmy Hessonite Garnets on Diopside from the Jeffrey Quarry

These are all QUALITY mineral specimens and they need to find new homes.
Just make a bid or offer and they could be on their way to your collection!
