Weekend Sale!

We have added 58 specimens to the Discount Section of the website. Some very good things now on offer at 40% off the listed price; others at 60% off the listed price. This sale will end on Sunday October 30 at 3 pm central standard time.

Unlike past sales, all sale items are now available for purchase using the shopping cart. We highly recommend using the cart in order to guarantee that you get each specimen that you wish to purchase. There is no need to email your order directly to us.

To view the sale items you can go directly to the following link:

Or from our home page, click on the "Discounted Specimens" link.

Please be aware that we are currently in Munich for the show. We will not be shipping orders again until around November 6 after our return home.
