Make An Offer Sale!

For a Limited Time Only!

Here's something new for 2022! In place of our usual Summertime Pre-Denver Show Mineral Sale, I'm going to try a new auction format for the entire website. For a limited time only, I'm accepting best offers on every item in every mineral showroom. Basically, the entire website is now on sale and all reasonable offers will be accepted.

The rules are simple: Just select your item or items of choice in an email with your best offer for each. I will respond quickly with an acceptance email or counteroffer.

If your item of choice is a consignment specimen, I will present your offer to the consignor for acceptance. This Sale applies to all mineral showrooms including the new Gold, Silver, Beryl, and soon to be online Rhodochrosite showrooms. This sale will last for a short time only so take advantage of the savings to add to your collection!
